

Proportional Representation —No. 3

Having in preceding articles referred to the inequalities in representation in our public bodies which result from our present system of election, and the methods which are proposed by Proportional Representation for overcoming these inequalities, it is now proposed to cite a few examples of results achieved where P.R. has been put into practice.

In the last British elections, seven of the English universities were combined into one constituency electing two members, and the election was conducted under the P.R. method. Four candidates were nominated for the two seats. When the ballots were counted it was found that first preferences had been recorded as follows: Fisher, 259; Hobson, 366; Williams, 366; Conway, 303—a total of 1,994.

With a total vote polled of 1,994, and with two candidates to be elected, the necessary quota to secure election would be arrived at by dividing 1,994 by three and adding one. This gives a quota of 665. Mr. Fisher, having polled 259 votes, was declared elected, and his surplus of votes over 665, namely, 294, was then distributed according to the second preferences indicated thereon. More than half, 162, fell to Conway, 88 to Hobson and 44 to Williams. The position of the candidates at the conclusion of the transfer was: Fisher, 665 (elected); Conway, 465; Hobson, 454; Williams, 410.

While one candidate was elected, not one of the other three had obtained a quota. The lowest on the poll, Williams, with 410 votes, was accordingly declared elected, and his votes transferred. As many as 112 fell to Conway, thus bringing his total above the quota, and he was accordingly elected. Thus under P.R., a man who was at the foot of the poll on the first count was actually elected because of a strong preference as a second choice candidate.

An election under the Proportional Representation system which has attracted widespread attention was the municipal election in Sligo, Ireland, whereby the first town council in the United Kingdom to be chosen by the new method was selected. In that election 24 candidates were elected, eight from each of three wards. Four groups of candidates were in the field representing the Ratepayers' Association, Sinn Féin, Labor and Independents. The following table gives a summary of the final result, and reveals the fact that each group obtained representation in the council in proportion to their voting strength:

Parties	First Preferences	Second Preferences	Obtained Seats
Ratepayers	523	894	8
Sinn Féin	674	733	7
Labor	432	470	5
Independents	279	303	4
Totals	2,208	2,400	24

It is thus shown that all groups of citizens obtained representation and that, if allowance is made for cross voting between the wards, they obtained representation in proportion to their numbers. Further, in all cases the electors had the final word in deciding which of the nominees of the various parties should be returned. The objects of P.R. being to secure freedom of choice in voting and justice in representation, these were secured by the single transferable vote.

Prior to this election in Sligo, as in so many other places, many of the more heavily taxed citizens found themselves out-voted. After some time, they ceased to try to obtain representation. They were compelled to be content with criticizing the work of the council from outside, and much of their criticism was justified, for, as is often the case when the constitution of the council is one-sided, the administration was not of a high order. The corporation, however, labored under difficulties. Its powers of assessment and taxation were limited. It inherited a considerable debt. Burdens imposed by the council continued to increase. Eventually the crash came. "The corporation was bankrupt. The streets were, for a time, neither repaired nor swept and the street lights were not lit. As a result, there sprang into existence a widespread and dangerous situation, in which many members of the hitherto unrepresented minority took a prominent part. The ratepayers challenged the action of the council in striking a rate in excess of its powers. Finally, a new municipal charter was passed, giving the corporation unlimited powers of assessment and taxation, but providing for an early election under the proportional system. The result, indicated above, shows that the ratepayers through their association candidates have now obtained fair and proportionate representation on the council.

Speaking of the election results, the newly-elected mayor says: "The election recently conducted here under P.R. has given entire satisfaction to the people of Sligo, and under no circumstances would they be agreeable to go back to the old system." (Next week some objections to P.R. will be dealt with.)

They keep the water hot for a much longer space of time, because they do not conduct heat as metal does. They are easier to keep clean, because they are made in one piece without joint or seam, and the hard, glass surface is impervious to liquids or odors. And they cost no more. Last longer, too. Third Dose Relief! Fifth Dose! Diarrhoea Stopped.

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened and debilitated. No other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and very often total collapse.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only prompt and effective in checking the diarrhea, but at the same time acts as a stimulant, strengthens the heart and braces up the whole system, and one of its principal points is that it does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.

Mr. W. H. Arnold, Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., writes: "A few years ago while out on the riding, I had a severe attack of diarrhea. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good. I was getting worse all the time. Hearing that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry was good for diarrhea, I went into town and procured a bottle. After the third dose I felt relief, and after I had taken the fifth dose the diarrhea had stopped. I always keep it in the house, and would not be without it."

To Manufacture Briquettes

Lignite Board Locating $400,000 Plant to Make Cheap Fuel Immediately

Final decisions as to the location of the plant to manufacture briquettes from the lignite deposits in southeastern Saskatchewan and southwestern Manitoba will be made in the immediate future, stated R. A. Ross, chairman of the lignite utilization board, which held its first session in western Canada at Winnipeg recently.

Mr. Ross stated that the board would visit the lignite deposits and would go into the matter of the location of a $400,000 plant to be constructed under the direction of the board. Mr. Ross stated that it was the intention of the board to let all the contracts for the construction and equipment of the plant during the coming winter, construction to commence as soon as possible, and if the plan of the board did not miscarry, the plant would be producing briquettes by August, 1920. The capacity of the plant would be 30,000 tons a year and briquettes would be turned over to the coal dealers in Winnipeg at approximately $9.40 a ton.

The briquettes would be made from coal supplied from the mines already in the district and the board would probably pay $1 a ton for this coal. If the coal was not available from the mines the board would mine its own coal.

Dependents Must Sail This Year

No Free Repatriation of Dependents After December

Headquarters has warned all men of the Canadian overseas force on indefinite leave awaiting repatriation with dependents, to report immediately to the discharge depot at Buxton. They are also notified that free repatriation for dependents will not be allowed after December 31, except where statutory declaration is made showing that it was impossible for those concerned to proceed to Canada before that date.

This does not refer to men who have taken discharge in the United Kingdom, therefore it does not affect men on whose behalf an appeal is now being made to the government for repatriation at the public expense.

Bill Introduced to Remove Restrictions as to Age

London, England—An interesting paragraph in the August number of the International Woman Suffrage News stated that the Icelandic Government has introduced a bill into the Althing for the amendment of the Constitution in such a way as to give equal political suffrage for elections in districts to all men and women of 25 years, while 35 years is to be the qualifying age for electors of both sexes for elections to the Upper House. It is considered certain that this amendment will be passed, in which case the elections will take place in the spring. Four years ago in the Icelandic women were enfranchised, subject to certain restrictions as to age, which the amendment bill now before the Althing will remove.

A light of satisfaction was in his teacher's eyes as Dave made this answer. Mr. Duncan had realized that he was starting late with this pupil, and if there were any short cuts to education he must find them. So he had set out deliberately to instill the idea that education is not a matter of schools and colleges, or courses of reading, or formulae of any kind, but a matter of the five senses applied to every experience of life. And he knew that nothing was coarse or common that passed through Dave's hands. Coal had ceased to be a stumpy mineral, and had taken on talismanic qualities unguessed by the mere animal workman; and sugar, and coffee, and beans, and rice, and spices, each would open its own wonderful world before this young and fertile mind. As an heirloom from his boyhood on the ranges, Dave had astoundingly alert senses; his sight, his hearing, his sense of smell and of touch were vastly more acute than those of the average university graduate. . . . And if that were true, might it not fairly be said that Dave was already the better educated of the two, even if he, as yet, knew nothing of the classics?

As Dave parted from the Metford gang he felt that he knew what Mr. Duncan had meant by the dead-line. These were men who would always shiver with cold, because they aspired to nothing better. There was no atom of snobbery in Dave's nature; he knew perfectly well that shovelling coal was quite as honorable and respectable a means of livelihood as managing a bank, but that shovelling coal was content to shovel coal was on the dead-line. . . . And, by the same logic, the man who was content to manage a bank was on the dead-line. That was a new and somewhat startling aspect of life. He must discuss it with Mr. Duncan.

Dave's energy and enthusiasm in the warehouse soon brought him promotion from truck hand to shipping clerk, with an advance in wages to sixty-five dollars a month. He was prepared to remain in this position for some time, as he knew that promotion depends on many things besides ability. Mr. Duncan had warned him against the delusion that man is entirely master of his destiny. "Life, my boy," he had said, "is fifty per cent environment and forty per cent heredity. The other ten per cent is yours. But that per cent is like the steering gear in an automobile; it's only a small part of the mechanism, but it directs the course of the whole machine. Get a good ship on the part of your life you can control, and don't worry over the rest."

To economize both time and money Dave took his lunch with him and ate it in the warehouse. He had also become possessed of a pocket encyclopedia and it was his habit to employ the minutes saved by eating lunch in the warehouse in reading from his encyclopedia. It chanced one day that as he was reading in the noon hour Mr. Trapper, the head of the firm, came through the warehouse. Dave knew him but little; he thought of him as a stern, unapproachable man, and avoided him as much as possible. But this time Mr. Trapper was upon him before he was seen.

"What are you reading?" he demanded. "Yellow backed nonsense?" "No, sir," said Dave, rising and extending his arm with the book. "Why, what's this?" queried Mr. Trapper, in some surprise. "Tea—tea—ah, I see, it's an encyclopedia. What is the idea, young man?"

"I always like to read up about the stuff we are handling," said Dave. "But interesting to know all about it; where it comes from, how it is grown, what it is used for, the different qualities, and so forth."

"H'm," said Mr. Trapper, returning the book. "No doubt." And he walked on without further comment. But that afternoon he had something to say to his manager.

"That young fellow on the shipping desk—Elden, I think his name is. How do you find him?"

"Very satisfactory, sir. Punctual, dependable, and accurate."

"Watch him," said Mr. Trapper.

The manager swung around in his chair. "Why, what do you mean? You haven't occasion to suspect—"

Mr. Trapper's customary sternness slowly relaxed, until there was the suggestion of a smile about the corners of his mouth, and rather more than a suggestion in the twinkle in his eye.

"Do you know what I caught that young fellow doing during noon hour?" he asked. "Reading up the encyclopedia on Tea, Tea, mind you. Said he made a practice of reading up on the stuff we are handling. We mind you. Found it very interesting to know where it came from, and all about it. A cool, clean shave for 1/5 of a cent!

A cool, clean, satiny shave for 1/5 of a cent—think of it! At least 500 shaves are obtained from 12 AutoStrop blades, and you often get more than that.

Just a turn or two on the strop and your AutoStrop Razor is ready. After shaving, you press a little lever, put the blade under the tap, wipe it off, and it is ready for the next shave.

There is no need to take the razor to pieces and assemble it again; simply leave the blade where it is from start to finish. This means time saved in the morning rush, and a razor blade that's good for about six weeks' clean, cool shaves.

on a newspaper. I think I'd take it.

"Not on account of the money," he continued, after a little. "You would probably soon be earning more in the wholesale business. Newspaper men are about the worst paid of all professions. But it's the best training in the world, not for itself, but as a step to something else. I have often wondered why editors, who are forever setting every other phase of the world's work to rights, are content to train up so many thousands of bright young men—and then pass them, along into other businesses where they are better paid. But the training is worth while, and it's the training you want. Take it."

Dave explained his disadvantages to the editor of "The Call." "I didn't want you to think," he said, "with great frankness, 'that because I was reading Shakespeare I was a master of English. And I guess if I were to write up stuff in Hamlet's language I'd get canned for it.'"

"We'd probably have a deputation from the Moral Reform League," said the editor, with a dry smile.

"Just the same, if you know Shakespeare you know English, and we'll soon break you into the newspaper style."

So, almost before he knew it, Dave was on the staff of "The Call." His beat comprised the police court, fire department, hotels, and general pick-ups. And the very first day, as though to afford fuel for his genius, a small fire occurred in a clothing store.

"It's good for two sticks"—about four inches," said the editor, when Dave had given him the main facts.

"Write your story to fit."

Dave suddenly realized that, although he had been a persistent reader of newspapers during the recent months, he had scarcely the remotest idea of how many words went to a column, or to an inch. It was a piece of information needed at once, so he set about to count the words in a column. Then he wrote his story to fit. He had already learned that everything in a newspaper office, from a wedding to a ball game, is "a story." When he turned his in it looked like this:

The fire bell was heard ringing this morning about ten o'clock, and soon after crowds were seen wending their way to the Great West Clothing Store. There was a heavy black smoke coming from the back end of the store. The firemen were late in getting there, and before they arrived a man had got badly choked by trying to go into the store. Presently the engine came up and before long water was being applied in great quantities, and soon the fire was under control. Part of the roof fell in, and the building is pretty badly ruined. Some of the contents may be fit for sale. It seems too bad that the fire engine should have been so long in coming, as without doubt if it had got there promptly the fire could have been put out before much damage occurred. However, it might have been worse, as it was a frame building, and in a row of other frame buildings, and if the fire had once got beyond control much damage might have been done. Nobody seems to know how the fire started.

It was with much quiet excitement that he awaited the appearance of the evening edition. He had a strange eagerness to see his contribution in print, a masterpiece, no doubt, of that peculiar trait in human nature which fills the editorial waste basket with unaccepted contributions.

Alberto Santos Dumont First Pilot to Fly an Aeroplane

To many readers the name Alberto Santos Dumont will be unfamiliar, and yet it is the name of one of the most successful pioneers in aviation.

He is a native of Brazil, and has been president of the Aeronautic Federation of the Western Hemisphere. He is now visiting North America for the purpose of studying the improvements made in aviation since he showed the world how to fly. He was the first pilot of a dirigible balloon, and the first to fly an airplane.

His interest in balloons began in early age, and in 1901 he had perfected a dirigible with which he won at Paris the prize of $50,000. He was made a chevalier in the French Legion of Honor in 1904 and received the officers' cross in 1909.

"Flying," said Santos Dumont in a recently given interview, "is a young man's game, and I will do my flying now as a passenger." He characterized the Atlantic flights as "romantic achievements," but said the real progress in aviation is being made in shorter and more practical flights.

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take

"Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons to the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

Boys Drilling Plant

The Great West Natural Gas Company of Calgary have purchased the California oil well drilling plant owned at Eastend by a local syndicate, and it is reported that they are moving it to the field which they have selected for the purpose of supplying natural gas to Moose Jaw and Regina. The plant is said to be one of the best of its kind, and is capable of drilling to a depth of 5,000 feet.

How the last Victory Loan was spent

For Demobilization

For Trade Extension

BEFORE buying Victory Bonds again you may want to know how Canada used the money you loaned her last year.

Canada borrowed the money to carry on the war and to provide credits for Great Britain and our Allies.

CONSIDERABLY more than one-half of the Victory Loan 1918 was spent on our soldiers. This included $312,900,000, for paying them, feeding them, bringing them home, separation allowances to their dependents, maintenance of medical services and vocational training schools.

$59,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1918 was paid on account of authorized Soldiers' gratuities.

$9,000,000 was spent at Halifax for relief and reconstruction after the disaster.

+ + + + +

Other disbursements were not, strictly speaking, expenditures, but National Re-investments.

To Great Britain for example:

$173,500,000 was loaned for the purchase of our wheat and cereals.

$9,000,000 for our fish.

$30,000,000 for other Foodstuffs.

$2,900,000 for Canadian built ships.

$5,500,000 to pay other British obligations in Canada.

Making in all $220,900,000 advanced to Great Britain.

To our Allies, we loaned $8,200,000 for the purchase of Canadian foodstuffs, raw material and manufactured products.

The Re-investments will be paid back to Canada in due time, with interest.

These credits were absolutely necessary to secure the orders for Canada because cash purchases were impossible.

They have had the effect of tremendously helping agricultural and industrial workers to tide over the depression that would have followed the Armistice, had we not made these credit loans.

As far as money is concerned, 1919 has been, and is still—just as much a war year as 1918. Our main expenditures for war cannot be completed until well on into 1920. Thus another Victory Loan is necessary—Get ready to buy.

The Priest, He Pray Too Much, By Gosh!

A garrulous little Frenchman from down the line was telling the crowd in a Calgary hotel lobby about having been hailed out completely during August. "My wheat, by gosh, she's knee high that day before the hail storm come; she's good for 40 bushels anyway, maybe some more. My Marguerite she say I sure buy a better car than a Ford this fall. She's sick of the Ford, by gosh. I'm say, 'All right cherie, what car you like?' She say, 'O anything but a Ford, when you get such a good crop, Narcisse.'
"Well, by gosh in 15 minutes she's hailed out. Not one head of wheat left. Nothing but bare ground. Well, anyway, I save my binder twine, by gosh.
"All my neighbors but three hailed out. That's funny too, by gosh. Last spring when she's dry, we pay the priest plenty good money to pray for rain. These three men not hailed out, they not pay one cent. They say: 'No, by gosh, let the weatherman run the weather; I'm not pay.'

"Well, the priest he pray and he pray. Then she rains not much and he pray some more, and by gosh he pray too much; she's not only rain by gosh, she hail. And those fellows who not pay, he's not got hailed out. That's funny too by gosh. Next spring when she's dry and the priest ask for collection to pray for rain, I'm say, 'All right mon pere, pray just a little rain, but not too much for hail.'

orator, will begin a series of speeches in Ontario, with a discussion of the Ross River. It used to be an explosive subject, but has it not been exploded?

Education Pays on The Farm!

Statistics show that farmers who have an education make larger incomes than those who have received but little schooling. An education is necessary now than it was thirty years ago. Farming has changed greatly in this period. Then, farmers cut their grain with a cradle, bound it by hand and threshed it with a flail. They ground their grain between stones and lifted the water out of the well in buckets. They treated their nondescript cattle for "hallow horn" and "wolf in the tail," and planned their grain "in the moon." The horse and the ox were their only means of transportation. The farm houses had no conveniences; houses were lit with candles; the kitchen equipment consisted largely of hard work. Now, the farmers have larger farms, they cut and bind their grain with binders and thresh with engine-driven separators. They frequently plow with tractors and many own automobiles. They select varieties of grain that are known to give larger returns than the ordinary varieties. They treat their seed to control diseases and plant at rates per acre, which experiments have shown to give maximum yields. They select improved types of breeding animals and feed their stock in accordance with knowledge derived from the chemistry of foods. The farm houses have been greatly improved. To keep up with the times and to make the most money from the farm one should know how to farm in accordance with the most improved methods. You can learn these methods at the Old School of Agriculture. Education pays: you can learn in a few months what it would take years of experience to give you. Talk with any ex-student regarding the value of the course.
Courses in Agriculture and Domestic Science commence on October 20th.

Strikers Denounced By Lloyd George

London.—Premier Lloyd George surprised his countrymen, as he frequently does, by denouncing the railwaymen's strike as "Prussianism" and "another effort to hold up the community and strangle it into submission," at the Lord Mayor's Mansion House luncheon in honor of Field Marshal Allenby.

The occasion was an unusual one for such a topic, but the Premier has a habit of doing unusual things at unusual times. Near him sat Emil Falal, son of the king of the Hedjaz, in white robes, and the Archbishop of Canterbury with an array of other military and civilian nobles, such as only London can muster on ceremonial occasions. These expected nothing more sensational than compliments to the conqueror of Palestine.

"The nation means to be master in her own house," Mr. Lloyd George declared, "a just master, a fair master, a generous master, but always master in her own house."

This was naturally accepted as a proclamation of the Premier's view that the country won a victory over the strikers.

J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and leader of the recent strike, speaking at Albert Hall, dwelt on the settlement of a compromise, and issued a statement appealing for reconciliation and a burial of his feeling.

Labor papers appear to differ with Mr. Thomas as to some aspects of the strike settlement. When Mr. Lloyd George makes an important speech, newspapers try to find between the lines to discover his political purposes. The general interpretation of this speech is that the Premier has broken with labor unions and wants to draw to his support the middle classes, who apparently tended to drop away from him as a result of the recent campaign upon the alleged governmental extravagance.

Argentine Will Give Credit

Government Acceded to Request of France and Italy

Buenos Ayres.—Declaring that large stocks of Argentine grain would not be sold unless the government acceded to the request of France and Italy for a credit of $200,000,000 with which to purchase cereals, a delegation representing the chamber of commerce of Rosario, a great grain centre, requested President Irigoyen to expedite the loan by calling an extra session of congress. The regular session adjourned recently without acting on the loan. President Irigoyen indicated he would endeavor to convene congress as early as possible and would recommend the loan as business of the first importance.

Bulgaria Seeks Time Extension
Paris.—The supreme council will meet to reply to the request of Bulgaria for an extension of ten days to the time granted it for presentation of its observations on the treaty handed to the Bulgarian commissioners September 19.

London.—The Cork Development Association has received a cablegram from Henry Ford stating that he is considering running a line of steamers to Ireland.

Move to Regulate Price of Clothing

Toronto.—Immediate and effective action to regulate clothing prices was forecasted by Commissioner Murdoch of the Commerce Board, at the conclusion of the board's investigation into clothing prices here. Col. W. H. Price, government counsel, had addressed the commissioner, calling attention to evidence which he said warranted action on the part of the board, and Commissioner Murdoch replied:

"I am firmly convinced that something should be done to reduce the price of clothing, and so far as I am concerned, as one member, I will hope to see something done promptly and effectively."

Commissioner Murdoch said he concurred in Col. Price's declaration that there had been too much profit made by some of the clothing houses whose affairs had been investigated. "And I am further of the opinion," he went on, "that there is more than net profit involved, that there is real

Plan Reform in Election Laws

Double Representation Not Permissible If Amendments Are Approved

Ottawa.—Double representation of constituencies in the Dominion parliament will not be permissible in future if amendments to S. W. Jacobs' bill to change the House of Commons Act agreed to by the privileges and elections committee are approved by parliament.

Mr. Jacobs' bill, as originally introduced, provided that a member elected for two seats must, within thirty days, make a choice as to the seat he proposes to represent.

The committee, after considerable discussion, agreed to an amendment providing that no person shall be eligible for election to the House of Commons in more than one electoral district at the same time. The further provision is made that if a man accepts nomination in two constituencies such nominations will be null and void. The law will apply to by-elections as well as to general election contests.

The clause in Mr. Jacobs' bill, which made provision for the filling of vacancies which occurred within 60 days, was also changed. The amendment provides for the filling of such vacancies within six months.

Strikers Granted Increase

London.—A court of arbitration considering the demands of the transport and laborers in London and the provinces has made an award granting an increase in wages amounting to four shillings weekly to those over 18 years of age and two shillings to those below that age. The recent agitation among the men was for an increase of 12 shillings weekly.

Prohibition Has Large Majority

Christiania.—The vote by which Norway adopted the prohibition of whiskey, brandy and other strong liquors in the referendum was 428,451 in favor of prohibition and 284,137 against.

Christiania was strongly against the proposition, only 18,500 voting for it, as compared with 70,000 in opposition. The measure does not affect wines and beers.

Dominion Guards Unlikely

London.—The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian indicates that the suggestion of establishment of a battalion or regiment of Dominion Guards for an addition to the home brigade has been found impracticable, but possibly the idea of attachment of recognized Canadian, American or South African units may be attainable, though presenting considerable difficulties.

Irish Bill for New Session

London.—Parliamentarians say the Irish Bill will be a feature of the new session of parliament, and the cabinet is now considering one drafted on lines of dominion home rule, but with suggested alterations that any county may stand out, or Ulster counties be all included and have their own secretaries of state.

Nationalists Capture Koniah

Apprehension That Turkish Throne May Be In Danger

Paris.—Koniah, an important railroad centre, is in the hands of the Turkish Nationalists, according to reports from this city, which in the days of Roman power was known as Iconium and was the capital of the province of Lycaonia, stands in a position which virtually dominates South Asia Minor. Its capture appears to indicate that Mustafa Kemal is in control of the vast region stretching from Koniah from the southwest to Erzerum, the principal city of Turkish Armenia, a distance of 425 miles. It is said the fall of the Turkish cabinet was caused by the capture of Koniah, and there seems to be some apprehension in some quarters that the Turkish throne may be in danger.

On the other hand, French circles point out that Djemal Pasha, the newly appointed Turkish minister of war, is a political ally of Mustafa Kemal.

Great Britain began to withdraw her troops from Armenia in August, and it is probable this movement is now far advanced. France has forces in Syria, while Greece and Italy have small detachments at various points along the coast of Asia Minor.

None of these nations, however, appears to have sufficient forces to conduct a campaign in the interior of the country. Great Britain's army in Mesopotamia and in Palestine, to the east and south, seems to be too far away to menace the spread of the Turkish nationalist movement, led by Mustafa Kemal.

Prohibition in Norway

Despite This, Arrests for Intoxication Have Been Increasing

Christiania.—War-time prohibition, operating since December, 1916, and forbidding the sale and private importation of spirits and strong liquors has been made permanent.

Despite this prohibition, arrests for intoxication have been steadily increasing throughout the country, and in some places have been higher than before the war-time prohibition was put into effect.

Substitutes for liquor, especially fermented liquors, are being used everywhere. Illegal distillation also is increasing, especially in the rural districts.

It is feared that France, Spain and Portugal, from which countries liquor was imported, may retaliate with a tariff on Norwegian products, such as timber and fish, thereby injuring especially the Norwegian fish trade, 60 per cent. of which goes to Portugal.

Barrage Removed From North Sea

Washington.—Removal of the great North Sea barrage laid by the United States navy during the war has been completed.

This was disclosed when Secretary of the Navy Daniels made public a cablegram of congratulation sent to Rear-Admiral Strauss, who commanded the force which since last October had been engaged in the hazardous task of sweeping the 30,000 mines from the sea.

King Albert Runs Train

Chicago.—The King of the Belgians ran the engine of his own train for ten miles. The special train on which the King and his party are travelling westward was stopped at Wauseon, Ohio, while His Majesty climbed into the cab of the engine and took over the throttle from the grimy pilot. The King, who has a thorough knowledge of locomotive engineering, ran the heavy train for 10 miles without a jolt, then he stopped the engine and returned to his car.

Fatal Tornado in Kansas

Holsington, Kas.—Two persons were killed and 25 injured, some of them seriously and property damaged, estimated at a quarter of a million dollars, resulted when a tornado struck here and swept a path of destruction several blocks wide through the business and residential section of the city.

Police Reach Budapest

Paris.—The arrival of 1,800 British soldiers, forming part of the international detachment to take over the police service at Budapest after the departure of the Rumanians, is reported in dispatches from the Hungarian capital. Two thousand Italian soldiers are also expected.

Concerning Shipping Supervision

Co-operation to Be Introduced in Control of Ocean Tonnage

Ottawa.—Replying to a question by J. K. Armstrong, Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, stated that the Dominion Government has called the Imperial Government's attention to injustices in connection with the supervision by the British Ministry of Shipping in the employment of vessels under charter by Canadian shipping interests.

In reply to another question, Sir George stated that the Canadian Government will co-operate with the Imperial Government and other overseas dominions in considering the question of the supervision and control of ocean tonnage between the different parts of the British dominions.

In reference to a report of a British royal commission in favor of government supervision in transatlantic shipping, the minister stated that this report will probably form the subject matter of consideration at the next Imperial conference.

Heavy Expenditures

Deputy Minister of Finance Submits Figures to Committee on Soldiers'

Ottawa.—A presentation of the government's obligations in regard to the payment of perhaps $200,000,000 re-establishment grant in addition to the burdens already to be borne, was given by the special committee on the soldiers' civil re-establishment by T. C. Boyle, deputy minister of finance.

Since March 31, 1914, the public debt has increased 580 per cent. from $335,996,000 to an estimate for 1919-20 of $1,950,000,000. Pensions are estimated this year at $300,000,000; land settlement, $25,000,000; and soldiers' civil re-establishment, $10,000,000. Interest on the public debt has risen from $12,093,000 in 1913-14 to $102,762,000 this year.

War expenditures for 1919-20 were estimated at $350,000,000 exclusive of pensions, and this year's consolidated revenue receipts were estimated at $244,000,000.

For Sweeping Reform

National Women's Council Present Views on Many Subjects

Calgary.—Resolutions asking that second offences for bootlegging be punishable by jail sentences, that equal parental rights be established in the province, that widows be given greater power under the Dower Act, that a living wage be incorporated in the Factories Act, that hotels and lodging houses be licensed to bring them under police regulation, and that marriage licenses be issued only from courthouses by responsible parties and that the lists be published every day, were passed by the provincial executive of the National Council of Women, which met here recently.

Will Investigate Irrigation in West

Ottawa.—The agriculture committee of the commons recently gave evidence to the question of irrigation in the dry areas of the prairie provinces. During the discussion the important announcement was made by Professor J. A. Grisdale, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, that the Department of Agriculture, realizing the importance of this matter, is undertaking to carry on a thorough enquiry into the whole question, which may lead to important results.

Italy Ratifies Peace Pacts

Rome.—King Victor Emmanuel has ratified the German and Austrian treaties by decree.

The Giornale d'Italia says that each decree contains two articles, the first authorizing the government to execute the treaty fully and the second setting forth that the documents be presented to parliament to be converted into law.

Irish Home Rule Bill

London.—Parliamentarians say the Irish Home Rule bill, introduced in the new session of parliament, and the cabinet is now considering one drafted on lines of dominion home rule but with suggested alterations that any county may stand out or Ulster counties be all included and have their own secretary of state.

London.—Great Britain's ratification of the Peace Treaty, the Foreign Office has announced, is only the King's proclamation. All the dominions have ratified the treaty. The Australian House on September 15 and the Senate on October 15.

Right of Provinces To Enforce Prohibition

Gen. Mangin Will Assist Denikine

He Will Be Accompanied by Russian Ambassador to Paris

Paris.—General Mangin, whose recall to Paris from command of the eighth army, has just been announced, is to proceed to south Russia and join General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik commander there, according to L'Eclair. He will be accompanied by Basile Maklakoff, Russian ambassador to Paris, their mission being to co-ordinate the policy of the anti-Bolshevik government.

The eighth and tenth French armies are being broken up as units, and Generals Mangin and Gerard, who commanded them, have been recalled and placed at the disposition of the minister of war. Newspapers are greatly interested in this step, and explain it differently. While the opposition press insinuates that General Mangin may be out of favor, which it insists is undeserved, a majority of the newspapers declare the move is only an administrative measure resulting from the grouping of occupation groups in the Rhineland. It is said the eighth and tenth armies will soon be re-formed into a single corps, which will be commanded by General Degoutte.

Want Standardized Parts

Ottawa.—The Commons committee on agriculture received the report of the manufacturers' committee dealing with the proposal that the standardization of parts of agricultural implements should be agreed to in order to make it more convenient and save cost to the farmers. The report pointed out a great many difficulties in the way of successfully carrying out the plan.

After some discussion it was agreed not to allow the matter to drop, but to continue the discussion with the manufacturers during the parliamentary recess.

Quantity of Liquor Seized

Winnipeg.—Intoxicating liquor, rye whiskey, Scotch whiskey, Irish whiskey, cherry whiskey, gin, brandy and rum to the estimated value of $20,000 was seized by the city police morality department at the corner of Notre Dame avenue and Charlotte street. S. Gold, head of the firm of Gold & Cheick, alleged to have been carrying on the business of wholesale bootlegging, was filling bottles with liquor, surrounded by many modern appliances to facilitate, when arrested.

General Gouraud High Commissioner

Paris.—General Gouraud, whose brilliant defence in the region east of Reims baffled General Ludendorff in his attempt to crush the French army in the offensive of July, 1918, has been appointed high commissioner of France in Syria and commander-in-chief of the French army in the east. His appointment will be officially made public in the Journal Official.

California to Entertain King Albert

Santa Barbara, Calif.—Wild boar hunting on Santa Cruz Island, sea plane flights, motor jaunts about the city, a banquet and other features are on the program to be tendered King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and members of their suite upon arrival here.

Warsaw.—A Polish-German agreement has been signed by the Polish delegation in Berlin providing for the release of Poles interned in Germany for their military, political or national activity. The revoking of all sentences imposed on Poles and free return of the agreement which concerns Upper Silesia as well as Poland. The agreement will be in force immediately after its ratification.

Increased Gratuities

A Heavy Burden

Ottawa.—A further statement of the difficulties facing the government which make payment of $200,000,000 or more in gratuities a difficult matter for the administration to face, was placed before the special committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment by Sir Thomas White, former minister of finance.

The former minister of finance was calling attention to the many heavy expenditures which the government was called upon to face from the forthcoming Victory Loan. Without any new debts incurred, the major portion of this loan would be taken up in bank debt and other obligations.

"Canada's financial position," he said, "while it should not be called critical, is still serious because of five years' war expenditure to call for the most careful administration. The policy of all the nations which were belligerents will be toward retrenchment for the next few years."

In regard to the forthcoming loan, Sir Thomas said he had no misgivings as to the government's ability to subscribe, but he could see that, from present indications, a further loan would be necessary next year. Canada had had to borrow money to finance purchases by Britain and her allies in order to keep up the war trade might not suffer.

"I do not see how it would be possible for the government to raise any such further sum as is suggested if its credit is to be maintained," said Sir Thomas. The ex-minister expressed the view that should the government decide to grant a large amount of additional aid to soldiers, the money would mostly have to be produced by domestic loans.

Ottawa.—Legislation making it possible for a province to have absolute prohibition, either of importation or manufacture, or both, of spirituous beverages, was introduced in the house by Hon. C. I. Doherty, Minister of Justice. Before a province can bring about such conditions, however, there must be a plebiscite taken under the authorization of the resolution amendment by the provincial legislature. When this has been done, and a plebiscite is duly taken, then whatever the plebiscite provides for will be brought about by proclamation, issued in accordance with the proceedings provided in the Canada Temperance Act, of which the bill introduced is an amendment.

Replying to a series of questions by W. F. MacLean, the minister explained that the present law in Ontario in regard to which a referendum is being held does not deal with the question of the importation or manufacture of liquor. The province, he said, takes the position that they cannot deal with that question. "This," added the minister, referring to the bill he had just introduced, "would be a method whereby in virtue of Dominion legislation becoming operative by the vote of the electorate of a province, importation into that province or manufacture in it would be prohibited."

Italians Are Excited

By Warnings With Regard to Situation at Fiume

Rome.—Much excitement in political circles and excited comment in the press has been caused by the reported revision of warnings from Great Britain and the United States to Italy with regard to the situation at Fiume. It is declared that the British warning stated in effect that if "the present illegal situation" at Fiume should continue Italy would "run the risk of being put out of the alliance and the peace conference," and that it was received a few days after a similar warning from the United States.

The Tribune prints a violent article signifying the attitude of the British and American warnings should not be addressed to Italy, but to d'Annunzio, as "Fiume is not Italy; in fact, Fiume is fighting against the Italian government, which together with the other allies, is unable to solve the Adriatic problem after the disavowal of the pact of London."

Japan to Ratify Pact

Paris.—Ratification by the Japanese parliament of the German peace treaty is not required by the constitution of Japan, according to information from peace conference circles. Signature by the Emperor after consultation with the private diplomatic council constitutes the necessary ratification, and this is expected to take place by October 15.

Will Release Poles

Warsaw.—A Polish-German agreement has been signed by the Polish delegation in Berlin providing for the release of Poles interned in Germany for their military, political or national activity. The revoking of all sentences imposed on Poles and free return of the agreement which concerns Upper Silesia as well as Poland. The agreement will be in force immediately after its ratification.

A Happy Family

BY DR. R. G. BOWERS.

A happy family is one that can sit down to the table with keen appetites and good cheer. Plenty of the out-of-doors and cleanliness, inside and outside of the body, will make for health, wealth and happiness. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache to the most serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. The first thing to do in case you feel mean, lousy, dull, perhaps feverish, is to flush the liver and kidneys, drink plenty of water, and take a dose of castor oil, or, something better, made of May-apal, aloin and jalap, and long sold by almost every druggist as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. This may save you from a fit of sickness, remove the poisons from the system and give the tissues of the body a chance to build up and resist disease.

People are realizing more and more that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs I would advise any one to get Anuric (anti-uric acid) which is to be had nowadays for fifty cents, at almost any drug-store.

The biggest thing about him is that he hasn't kicked and howled; he hasn't threatened and menaced; he hasn't bombed or Bolsheviked; he hasn't often complained. The Best Liver Pill—The action of the liver is easily disregarded. A sudden chill, undue exposure to the elements, over-indulgence in some favorite food, excess in drinking, are a few of the causes. They are the leading liver pills, and they have no superiors among such preparations.

Ouch! Ouch! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezezone applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. He says freezezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quartet of an ounce of freezezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

If you suffer from asthma try it and convince yourself of its great value.

To Dig Out

Prices Will Fall When Production Is Increased
There is only one sure way to cut down the cost of living. Prices will fall when production is increased. With larger supply of what everybody needs to eat, drink and wear and for shelter there will be concurrent drop of cost to the consumer. At the same time there is brought about an equivalent rise in the wages of labor. To stop work is to decrease production. Having endured the war we must now begin the work of repair. One little word of three letters shows the way out of the world dilemma. That word is "dig."—From the Philadelphia Record.

RHEUMATIC PEOPLE

Can Only Find Relief By Enriching the Blood
Rheumatism is a disorder of the blood. It attacks people when the blood is overcharged with acid and impurities, thus setting up inflammation in the muscles and joints. Wet weather or cold weather of autumn may start the tortures of rheumatism, but is not the cause. The cause is in the blood and the blood only. Victims of this malady have every reason to fear the first dull ache in the limbs and joints, followed by sharp pains through the flesh and muscles; these are the symptoms of poison in the blood which may shortly leave the victim pinpricked and helpless.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism, and that is through the blood. Liniments, hot applications, and rubbing may give temporary ease, but cannot possibly root the trouble out of the system. That can only be done by the red blood which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. This new blood drives out the poisonous acids and impurities, and the rheumatism disappears. If you are a sufferer from this painful malady begin curing yourself to-day by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and see how soon the pains and stiffness of the joints fade away, leaving behind new energy and new health.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Indians Kill Game

Out of Season
Department Has Received Numerous Complaints of Activities of Indians

Regina, Sask.—An accusation that Indians are killing off big game out of season is made by F. Bradshaw, chief game guardian for Saskatchewan, who states that the toll taken illegally by the redskins during the past few years is jeopardizing the existence of some of the finest fawns on the North American continent.

While the Indians rarely hunt big game during the open season, they are shooting down moose and elk during the months of August, September and October, when they are easily lured to destruction by the use of a call. The department has received numerous complaints of the activities of the Indians, in recent years, and investigation proves that in nearly every instance the allegations are fully substantiated.

The Land Of The Seaplane

The Flying Boat
The creeds and fables of Scandinavia, from which the Vikings derived their name, appear to be going to play as important a part in the history of the country as they did in ancient days.

Scandinavia by her natural formation and proclaims herself the very home of the seaplane, so that it was with particular interest that the citizens of the three kingdoms watched the successful flight of the British seaplane which, only the other day, flew to Christiansand from Dundee and then went on in stages to Christiania, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Göteborg, Esbjerg, and then back to the east coast of England. The Scandinavians are a seafaring people and they see any number of seaplane harbors dotting their land. There, in Sweden, is a natural sea-great lakes, Vättern and Vänern, the Gotha canal and any number of lagoons and lakelets. As for Norway, she is magnificently well off in the matter of fiords and all the large towns of Denmark are approachable by water. The British flying boat in its journey across the North Sea performed the somewhat remarkable feat of arriving at the scheduled time and landing only two miles away from the intended "land-fall" on the Norwegian coast, although it had thick mist and clouds to contend with all the way.

Which Are The Seven Seas?

That there is a magic and mystery in numbers is an ancient tale, and the fact is confirmed by a correspondent asking: "Which are the seven seas?" Upon inquiry, there appears to be a common consensus as to six of the seven, these six being the Atlantic, the Arctic, Antarctic, Pacific, Mediterranean, and Indian. And just as the ancients, agreeing on six, were divided upon the seventh wonder of the world (some voting for the Pyramids of Egypt, others for the Palace of Cyrus), so there is doubt as to whether the seventh sea be the Baltic or the North Sea.

Is He Seventeen or Eighteen?
Do you remember those days when your character was being formed—how you followed examples, did what other people did—your senior years at school—your start in business? Recall them if you can. You gained a knowledge you will find useful when your own boy starts out.

Give him the right start. Teach him the value of personal appearance and self respect. Tell him how confidence may be gained merely from a clean shave—or, better still, show him—and show him in a practical way.

Give him a GILLETTE Safety Razor
and make his morning shave come easy. The old time pulling and scraping is a thing of the past. The hazardous element is gone. There is no need for your boy to know anything but the ease and comfort of the Gillette shave. It is the razor of his time—that to which he is entitled—nothing more, nothing less.

Of Local and General Interest

A grand supper and concert will be given at the Bellevue Methodist Church on the evening of Monday, November 3rd.

Morency's little month-old babebiller has already started to talk.
He remarked the other day: "You shut up, Dad, or you'll get a bat in

The dance given the early part of last week by the Great War Veterans' Association was an extraordinary affair and the greatest success of the season. Some two hundred couples were in attendance.

The Veterans' hall given at Hillcrest on Monday night was a huge success. About one hundred and thirty couples occupied the floor until 11.30, when the order to unmask was given and prizes were awarded.

The case of McLaren Lumber Co. against G. B. Catonico was disposed of at Nelsford yesterday. After hearing the evidence the case was dismissed. The action arose over an effort being made to prevent Catonico from removing a partition which he was obliged to place in his pool room, then in the Poncha Block, it being claimed by the owners of the building on account of it being nailed to the walls.

We overheard a preacher remark the other day, excitedly: "Gracious ain't that terrible. Already the government sleuths have discovered eighty-three illicit stills in Alberta." He probably was not aware of the fact, that at least eighty-three stills were in operation within a radius of twenty square miles in the Crow's Nest Park.
It's because of the moonshiners that The Pass is to-day the brightest spot on earth.

Work on the F. M. Thompson
Co. building is progressing rapidly under the direction of Contractor Pozzi. The building will be the finest business block in this end of The Pass; the main floor area being 36 by 115 feet, added to which is a smaller store of 17 by 50 feet. The main store contains a basement 80 by 36 feet into which is being installed a modern furnace and steam heating system. This work is being done by Plumber Jackson. Concrete sidewalks will be laid along the Victoria Street and Seventh Avenue fronts. The F. M. Thompson Co. hopes to be able to move into the new building before Christmas.
